

Two of our Students from First year who had participated in "My city through My lens" has won awards for same; a competition promoted by symbiosis school of Architecture, Urban Development and Planning.

Congratulations Safina shaikh and Zainab Divasali from team of faculties and students

SAFINA SHAIKH
One of the Winner
for
"My city through My lens"

Chalo Mumbai ki galiyo ki sehr karau,
Kuch rango se mohabbat ho jae aisa dekhau,
Rang toh Rang_ Hawao se bhi hojaegi Mohabbat apko,
Jameen se aarman saara apna us lagne lagega,
Chalo kuch aisa dekhlau!

School of Architecture, Urban Development & Planning
Symbiosis Skills & Professional University, Pune

NATIONAL E - CONFERENCE
FOR STUDENTS
MY CITY THROUGH MY LENS

This student's conference aims to understand the stories of cities through photography, videography, conceptual creativity, imagination, storytelling and many such creative forms to express it to the world. The conference aims to provide students to express their perceptions about their cities and surroundings. Students will be required to submit power point presentation consisting of series of photographs, in electronic form. The story he wishes to express.

ZAINAB DIVASLI
One of the Winner
for
"My City through My Lens"

*"Roadside sculptures defines the Identity of city,
they connect the place to locality
and city through its Past."*

School of Architecture, Urban Development & Planning
Symbiosis Skills & Professional University, Pune

NATIONAL E - CONFERENCE
FOR STUDENTS
MY CITY THROUGH MY LENS

This student's conference aims to understand the stories of cities through photography, videography, conceptual creativity, imagination, storytelling and many such creative forms to express it to the world. The conference aims to provide students to express their perceptions about their cities and surroundings. Students will be required to submit power point presentation consisting of series of photographs, to elaborate upon the story he wishes to express.